This is a story about a father and daughter. At first, it begins like a typical Grim & Hellweaver story, a black and white kid struggling against their father and grandmother's darkest designs. But then... your daughter Prim was born! What followed was a short but rather interesting tale of boy meets girl and the inevitable misunderstanding and joy. Against the wishes of the Grim Reaper, Prim meets a human boy and enters the Land of the Living. There she has an adventure in a world full of magic, monsters and (very few) humans. While Prim solves puzzles, she meets characters who help her on her quest or oppose her. Prim is a young girl being pulled in various directions. On the one hand, she wants to be the best daughter she can be, following in her father's footsteps as a Grim Reaper. On the other hand, she dreams of becoming a normal girl, until her father makes that impossible. Game Features: 6-8 hours of varied gameplay: The player is free to decide for himself what the most enjoyable gameplay experience is. There are a great number of choices in between the different options, none of which feels forced. Hand-drawn HD artwork: Each character has been painstakingly drawn and photographed to provide an authentic hand-drawn feeling, with different quality settings for further flexibility. More input is good input: The engine offers the user a wide range of possibilities, from „lazy“ art, through „minimalist“ and „adventurous“ to „maximalist“ and „full art style“. Lonely Hearts: During certain scenes, the player can select between Prim's two grandmothers. Initially, there's a romantic flavor to the relationship. But then the player can choose for a different relationship than that of a father and daughter. And, of course, both relationships are also playable in a sadder way. Enemies and side-quests: In the full release, Prim will face not only her father and, most importantly, her deceased grandmother. But she will also face bigger enemies, such as the tar demon Shelly and the (inhuman) B-Bad Mom. A story about love: The game carries a heavy romantic theme. But it's not a „love story“. It's more of an existential and challenging father/daughter story. Interactive

What's new in Venture Towns:

North America (VTNA) is a conference focused on accelerating and forging partnerships between the best high growth small high growth medium small and high growth companies in the Northeast United States. VTNA is the only conference in which all 100+ attendees are startup investors, partner, broker and business developers over the past 24-hours -- we are located only in Boston and New York. Many of the world's leading startups, angels, venture capital firms and corporate venture units will partake in the conference. We encourage the start-ups here to showcase how much or how little they have accomplished as a growth company, hence the name "Partnership and Goals"! As an added benefit, all of our events are geared for networking for the start-ups of all sizes. Our goal in partnering is to help quickly and easily get your company to the next milestone. If you are a new "startup" (or have been a company of only 10 employees less than 4 years), we are happy to offer an agenda, speaking slots and doors on our panel. Likewise, if your company is more mature (50-500 employees), we are happy to offer an agenda, speaking slots and life-stage rich-circle and networking opportunities. For the entrepreneurs with already a well-thought, well-executed, interactive online business model, we are happy to have you on our featured panel. The companies from which we have yet to book a panelist are Datalogix, Fiserv, Elcare, Fishbowl, RelateIQ, Axiata and Pingdom. To attend, submit your info, we'll make a panel notification and invite you to registration. Our model/agenda is make believe-able (amongst startups), with startup talk and panels to be available upon requests. Our catch phrase will be that "it's easy to partner with a conference like us."
